

The job of a district lecturer is to teach Ritualistic and floor work. Do not become involved with Chapter business which relates to the Grand Chapter Constitution/bylaws, or the bylaws governing subordinate Chapters.

Qualifications Duties and Expectations of District Lecturers

Qualifications of the District Lecturer

-  Must be a Past Matron/Patron
-  Must have attended a school of instruction during the months of June or July under the direction of the AGM and the incoming Grand Lecturer
-  Be knowledgeable in the Ritualistic and floor work

Duties of the District Lecturer

-  Schedule and hold a practice with each Chapter in her/his district on Ritual and floor work
-  After each official inspection, file a report with the Grand Lecturer using the District Lecturers Report Form and mail it to the Grand Lecturer within three days
-  Instruct each Worthy Matron to complete the Worthy Matron's report and mail it to the Grand Lecturer within three days of the inspection

 Assist the WGM/WGP with special task not covered in the constitutions and bylaws of the Order

 Instruct in Eastern Star protocol (e.g. introductions, courtesies, etc.)

 Attend visits by the WGM/WGP in their District (Be prepared to assist in the signing in of guests at Official Visits in your assigned Chapters)

 Instruct Chapters on the proper way to do introductions

 Wear appropriate apparel when appearing in the Chapter room, burial ceremonies, official visits, etc.

 Encourage each Chapter to do the best Ritual work possible

Expectations of the District Lecturer

 Instruct the Chapters on Ritual/Floor work

 Encourage Chapters to use music and costumes to enhance the quality of Ritualistic work

 Instruct Chapters in balloting and voting

 Instruct Funeral service. Ensure each Chapter/District can do a funeral if necessary

 Instruct in Eastern Star protocol (e.g. introduction courtesies)

 File reports

 Help Chapters achieve special awards